

Betrayal on the bill at theatre

Leisure

Support Affinity, and next year it could be a lot bigger!

Your BEST local leisure guide

Summer exhibition

Hundreds view artwork at annual display Page 14

Class reunion

Past pupils mark nursery anniversary Page 8

THE WOKINGHAM TIMES

UNRIVALLED COVERAGE OF THE

Est 1903 No 2,756 www.getwokingham.co.uk

EDF Wee

E. WOODLEY AND TWYFORD NEWS

RGY

Wednesday, July 31, 2013

70p where sold

Gossip Girls dig deep for Ollie

A SHOPPING evening at Wokingham Town Hall in support of the Ollie Young Foundation raised £200.

The sale was organised by mum Catherine Stott, of Emmbrook, who wanted to help the charity fund research into childhood brain tumours.

She said: "I have a little boy and when I heard about Ollie and his family my heart broke for them."

Visitors, including members of online social group Wokingham Gossip Girls (WGG), browsed stalls and enjoyed pamper treatments.

Claire Saul and Michele Munro from the charity's committee were at the sale last month. Mrs Saul said: "The event was competing with an open air concert at Elms Field and one of the first balmy Saturday nights of the summer so that was a good result and very gratefully received by us, as is every single donation.

Michele Munro and Claire Saul, left, on the Ollie Young Foundation stall, and, right, Tracey and Pam Rendle on the Capt'n Tortue stall. BK201367240.

Tracey and Pam Rendle on the Capt'n Tortue stall. Pictures by Steve Smyth.

"It was great to put names to faces we have seen on the Wokingham Gossip Girls Facebook site, especially when WGG have been such fantastic supporters of the charity and the Young family since the early days when Ollie became ill."