Ollie's name lives on at club

THE memory of a football-loving youngster will live on after his club named its players' lounge in his honour.

Ollie Young's family were lost for words after learning Finchampstead Football Club wanted to rename part of its clubhouse after the five-year-old who lost his battle with an incurable brain tumour.

His mum Sarah and brother Alfie from Woosehill joined the club for the renaming ceremony on Thursday. She said: "I don't think I can put into words what this means to myself and my family."
